

Phenomenon Question

Extreme Weather Events: How are extreme weather events like hurricanes, wildfires, and droughts linked to climate change, and how do they impact people's lives and livelihoods?

Grade:

Student Resource

Phenomenon Question

Extreme Weather Events: Understanding the link between extreme weather events and climate change empowers us to take proactive measures to mitigate their impact. Communities are investing in early warning systems, disaster preparedness, and resilient infrastructure to safeguard lives and livelihoods, fostering a sense of unity and resilience in the face of adversity.

Grade:

Student Resource